Veterans Of Tank Corps Renew Old Acquaintances Here; Hold One Session

Friday afternoon was a time of reunion in the lobby of the Hotel Gettysburg as the first group of World War I veterans of the 305th Tank Corps met for their biennial get-together in Gettysburg. Bent on simply renewing acquaintances, the veterans will hold only one business session during the entire weekend; the rest of the weekend will be spent visiting.

National Commander Charles S. Jones, has served in all the offices of the organization and is ending his first term as commander. Officers were elected this morning.

Frank G. Thomas, national finance officer and a past commander, Washington, D.C., publisher of "The Tanker," official publication of the Tank Corps, estimates a total membership of about 325. He says that some 150 members have died within the past two years, and estimates the average age of the members at 78. Thomas brought to the convention a Chinese cane decorated with pearl inlay which he said was given to Gen. Douglas MacArthur a number of years ago. Thomas purchased it about six weeks ago at a public auction for $19 and considers it one of his prized possessions.

GEN. JAYNES HERE

One of the most prominent figures at the past 33 annual reunions, John Conlon, New York City, was unable to attend this affair because of illness. A past commander, Jack C. Felton, Bala Cynwyd, Pa., was not able to attend because of the illness of his wife.

Major Gen. L. C. Jaynes, Washington, D.C., is executive director of the Tank Corps, and "holds the gang together," according to Jones. Jaynes is president of Trailways Bus Co., and registered Friday afternoon. Clarence Soland, Windsor, Ill., appeared for the first time in 10 years and displayed his Tanker cap decorated with more than 100 medals he has earned over the past 30 years. He has been a boys' state counselor for the past five years. Soland was stationed at Camp Colt for about three months in 1918 before being transferred to Tobyhanna. He attended his last reunion in Gettysburg in 1954.

MANY RETIRED

Jones reports that many of the Tankers are retired and able to take an active part in their community affairs. His favorite pastime is attending Allegheny County court with a group of his friends and watching the legal proceedings in the courtroom. His experience led him to assert that most jurors are not qualified to serve on juries and feels that too many qualified people shirk their responsibility by seeking to be excused from jury duty. He commented that "Adams County sends a fine judge to Allegheny County frequently." Judge W. C. Sheely has served on the bench in Allegheny County on a number of occasions.

A cocktail party this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock followed by the annual banquet at 7:30 o'clock will close this year's convention.

MANAGER FOR MOOSE LODGE BEING SOUGHT

The Gettysburg Moose lodge is seeking applications for secretary-manager, according to notices sent to members today.

At Thursday night's regular meeting of the lodge, those attending were told that George W. Naugle, 40 Barlow St., who had served as secretary-manager for a number of years, has resigned that post. Naugle had previously asked to be relieved of the position but agreed to stay as secretary if the house manager duties were handled by others. After several months as secretary only, he asked to be relieved of those duties as well.

Officers of the lodge are serving in various capacities to take care of the duties until a new secretary-manager is named and Mrs. Rosetta Johnson, who has served for a number of years as chief clerk in the secretary-manager's office, has been assigned the secretary's duties temporarily during the interim. Daniel Miller, one of the officers, has been named acting recording secretary until the new secretary is selected. (Continued on Page 3)

Wives of the veterans this morning were guests of the York County Historical Society for a tour of historic landmarks in York County and lunch at the Outdoor Country Club before returning to Gettysburg. They will join their husbands this evening at the annual cocktail party and banquet in the Hotel Gettysburg at 5:30 o'clock.

Rev. Fr. R. H. McCormick, Scranton, chaplain of Company C, 304th Bn., World War I, conducted a memorial service this morning after the business meeting in the hotel. National Commander Charles S. Jones was in charge of the meeting at which officers were elected. It was the only business session of the three-day reunion.

W. MD. TO RUN EXPRESS THRU HERE OCT. 18

The first excursion through Gettysburg in about 25 years is scheduled for Sunday, October 18, as part of the annual running of the "Blue Mountain Express" under auspices of the Baltimore Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society.

Stops are to be made by the 17-car train at Hanover, Gettysburg and Fairfield to pick up passengers in the morning and to discharge them in the evening.

Traveling via the Western Maryland Railway, the excursion has been held for a number of years on the main line of the road from Baltimore to Cumberland, Md., and return. It is designed principally to see the mountain scenery during the fall season.

SCHEDULE GIVEN

Because a large number of persons last year took part in the excursion, meeting the special at Westminster, it was decided this year to route one of the two trains required normally to handle the excursion, through the Gettysburg area. The mainline excursion will be held Saturday, October 17. On Sunday, October 18, the train will leave Baltimore, then travel via Hanover, Gettysburg and Fairfield to Hagerstown and Cumberland, Md., and return the same way. The train will leave Hanover at 9:40 in the morning and return at 8:30 that evening. It will leave Gettysburg at 10:25 a.m. and return at 7:45 p.m. It will leave Fairfield at 10:55 a.m. and return at 7:20 p.m. Fares will be $8.75 for adults from the local station, and $4.95 for children.

Tickets must be obtained by October 12 from the Western Maryland Railway freight agents at Hanover or Gettysburg. The train will stop at the former passenger depots, however, to take on and discharge passengers.

John Luntz, Fairfield, is the local member of the National Railway Historical Society in charge of arrangements here. Any profit raised by the chapter goes into such things as securing antique railway stock for museums.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Myers Nell, 95, New Oxford R. 2, widow of the William George Nell, died this morning at the Pape Convalescent Home, Gettysburg. She had been in ill health for the past three months.

She was born in Adams County, a daughter of the late Andrew and Suzanna Border Myers and was a member of St. Paul's United Church of Christ, New Oxford.

She is survived by one son, J. Monroe Nell, New Oxford R. 2; one grandchild and five great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Myers, Mrs. Annie Quiggle and Miss Emma Myers, all of York.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Feiser Funeral Home, New Oxford, with her pastor, Rev. John Z. Martin, officiating. Interment will be made in the New Oxford Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Monday evening after 7 o'clock.

PROPERTY SOLD

Miss Helen E. Kane, Gettysburg R. 6, has sold a frame house and lot in Franklin Twp., two miles west of Cashtown on old Route 30, to Mr. and Mrs. William D. Mowery, Franklin Twp. Immediate possession is being given. The sale was made by William A. Bigham, local realtor.

One of the 11 organizations in Adams County to benefit from the $32,000 United Fund campaign which opened Monday is the Penn-Laurel Girl Scout Council, which will receive $4,000.

Scouting is a very important project to the development and maturity of local girls. In 1963 a total of 1,266 girls between the ages of seven and 17 participated in the Girl Scout program. In addition, 97 adults participated in adult training opportunities which included leadership, administration, camping and specialized training.

Adams County has 60 troops and 250 adults actively participating in Girl Scouting. Sixteen of the 60 troops meet in Gettysburg at Christ Lutheran, Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian, St. Francis Xavier School and St. James Lutheran Church. Troops also are sponsored by service organizations and sororities in the area.

This year 573 campers enjoyed the day camp program at Camp Happy Valley with 31 Senior Girl Scouts as aides and 68 adults serving on the staff. It was the largest number so far to benefit from the month-long annual day camp program. During the year 56 troops in the county have camped overnight at Happy Valley.

Girl Scouts troops in the county serve many purposes in community affairs. They help to entertain guests at the hospital and the county home and make favors for these establishments during the holiday season.

Two Klansmen Acquitted Friday In Slaying Of A Negro Reserve Officer

By KATHRYN JOHNSON DANIELSVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Two white men have been acquitted in the night-rider slaying of Washington, D.C., Negro educator Lemuel Penn. However, they still face federal conspiracy charges under the new civil rights law.

Joseph Howard Sims, 41, and Cecil William Myers, 25, heard the verdict Friday night after a jury of white men deliberated slightly more than three hours.

A gasp and murmur arose from relatives and friends. Superior Court Judge Cary Skelton rapped for order. Relatives of the two men wept. Sims and Myers hugged their wives. They were surrounded by well-wishers.

MEMBERS OF KKK

Sims and Myers, whom the FBI identified as Ku Klux Klansmen, still face federal charges of conspiring to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate Penn and two companions. Penn was killed July 11 by a

HOLD FINAL CAMPFIRE LABOR DAY

The final campfire program for the 1964 season will be held on the Gettysburg Battlefield Monday evening, Park Superintendent Kittridge A. Wing announced today.

The program Labor Day will be the 57th presented during the season. Estimated attendance so far as 22,800. Park Superintendent Wing said that, based on the attendance and the many fine comments we heard from park visitors and local people alike, we feel the program has been well received. He added: "The good crowds in attendance were due in a large measure to the fine cooperation from local businesses, especially the Travel Council and motel and restaurant owners. They were our greatest boosters."

The campfire program features a talk by a park historian on the Civil War soldier and what he wore and carried into battle, a demonstration of the firing of a rifle musket and concludes with the showing of the MGM film "The Battle of Gettysburg." The film, made on the battlefield here a number of years ago, tells the story of the battle by utilizing guns and monuments on the field along with scenes of the cyclorama. The film is unique in that there are no human beings shown.

There is no charge for the campfire program which begins at 8:45 in the evening at the park's new amphitheater on W. Confederate Ave. The last 1964 showings will be tonight, Sunday and Monday.

MISSION FOR WORKERS ENDS FRIDAY NIGHT

More than 100 Puerto Rican migrant workers, representing the larger camps in the county, closed their annual Week of Prayer Mission Friday evening with the traditional Puerto Rican Way of the Cross and candlelight ceremony at the Musselman camp near Bendersville.

Rev. Fr. Francisco Santiago, S.J., of Woodstock College, Woodstock, Md., preached the mission. The Puerto Rican "Legion de Maria" of St. Francis Xavier church here assisted in conducting the mission. Under the direction of Rev. Fr. John Wildeman, assistant pastor of Xavier church, Legion members Antonio Mojica, Esperanza Dominguez, Herman Santiago and Jesus Ortiz arranged the program and publicized the mission among the workers.

Friday's impressive candlelight ceremony opened with the Way of the Cross starting at the Musselman camp and concluding at the Breezewood Migrant Chapel. This was followed by the closing sermon, "The Prodigal Son," delivered by Rev. Fr. Santiago.

SING HYMNS

Traditional Spanish hymns were sung during the procession. The migrant workers come to Adams County for six months each year to work in the orchards. They are served by the local Legion of Mary and each Saturday evening receive religious instructions and attend Mass Sunday morning at the Musselman Camp Chapel.

The program of the Legion and priests is social and intellectual as well as religious. Rev. Fr. Santiago said. A Spanish library is being erected at the Musselman camp and a program of instruction in English has been instituted for the workers. The Legion furnishes the instructors.

Inter-camp baseball games are played, leadership groups have been formed and a farwell party will be held in November before the workers leave.

JUVENILES CHARGED

Two juveniles were charged by state police Friday with the theft Thursday of milk and ice cream from a freezer at the refreshment stand at Lincoln Speedway, near Abbottstown. Police said the youths used the blade of a hunting knife to pry open the freezer.

On the same day in 1937 the high was 94 and on September 4, 1925, the maximum was 95 degrees.

The all-time heat record for September was set here on September 3, 1953, when the high was 102 degrees.

DRIVERS ARE "ALERTED" TO SCHOOL ZONES

With the opening of schools area motorists were reminded today of the necessity to drive carefully in school zones.

In addition to the boys and girls returning to school for the 1964-65 term, William E. Miller, general manager of the AAA Gettysburg Motor Club, cautioned motorists that many youngsters will be going to school for the first time and are unfamiliar with the dangers of traffic.

"Motorists should remain alert for these children and proceed with extreme caution in these areas where they are likely to be playing or walking to and from school," Miller urged.

While most public school students will continue to mark time until after Labor Day to start the fall term, parochial school students in the area responded to the pealing of school bells at the beginning of this week.

SAFETY LESSON

Miller announced that school safety material, including safety lessons and posters, have been distributed by Frank C. Russell, the AAA club's safety director, to schools in Gettysburg and Adams County as part of a continuing program to protect the lives and limbs of school children.

In warning motorists that "school's open," Miller urged motorists to "remain alert for speed limit signs and obey them to the letter when driving in school zones."

"Some 100 AAA School Safety Patrol members serving on 17 patrols in Adams County will be on duty at key intersections and crossings this year," he reported, but also appealed to parents of youngsters going to school for the first time to demonstrate "the safest way to school" by accompanying them for the first few days.

The AAA motor club official further suggested that "all parents should advise their children to follow the guidance of the school Safety Patrols whose job it is to protect their classmates from traffic hazards."

death penalty, said after the verdict: "I'm disappointed. We left no stones unturned but the jury had the last say."

A court-appointed defense lawyer, John Darsey, in an impassioned plea for acquittal, hammered at the racial issue and the federal government.

"They loosed a horde of federal agents in our midst," he said, waving his arms and slapping the jury box.

Then, dramatically lowering his voice, he added, "President Johnson sent them swarming in."

Darsey called the FBI "carpetbaggers of justice."

Prosecutor Jeff Wayne warned the jury that if the killing was condoned, "Human life has less value than a box of snuff."

Hudson, the defense attorney, lapsing into the vernacular of the region, appealed to the jury composed mostly of farmers and laborers: "You can't, after you electrocute them — and these children ain't got no daddy — come back and say you wonder if they did it."

Sims has eight children and Myers is the father of 3, and his wife is expecting.

2 CHOSEN FOR N. C. PROGRAM

Mr. and Mrs. George Bostwick, Gardners, have been selected by the federal government to take part in a five-day program at the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, N. C., next week which will be attended by welfare and migratory workers from throughout the United States.

The Bostwicks came to Adams County as migrant workers 13 years ago and since that time have been leaders in migrant work in the county. They were largely instrumental in the organization of the migrant workers' church in the northern part of the county.

Violence, Harangues And Little Information Taint Student Travel Hearings

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities has completed two days of hearings that produced a spurt of violence, endless harangues and very little new information about student travel to Cuba.

The committee's work is not done. It still has to question a witness who was hospitalized after a follower of the American Nazi party attacked him despite the host of police and marshals in the big committee room.

The United States does not recognize Cuba and prohibits all but officially sanctioned travel to the Communist-governed island.

So far the committee has interrogated a participant, the leader and an organizer of the trip that 84 young people made to Cuba this summer, defying a ban by the State Department.

All three repeated the same things they had said many times before in news conferences in Havana, New York and elsewhere and continually refused to say much else.

When asked to discuss the intricacies of the trip's financing, their own personal finances, or the part other people played in the trip, each witness invoked the 5th Amendment to the Constitution which provides protection against possibly self-incriminating testimony.

ANSWERS ONE QUESTION

On one occasion Friday, however, Albert Maher, 22, of Houston, who the committee said had been described as a millionaire's son, dropped the 5th Amendment protection to answer one question about his personal finances.

Rep. George F. Senner, D-Ariz., asked the young man if he had contributed any money to incite a street riot after the passage of the civil rights bill.

"That's a ridiculous question," Maher said, "just like this committee. The answer is no, but I consider this an insulting question."

Maher, who said he was a member of the executive board of the Student Trip To Cuba Committee and had taken part in a similar excursion last summer, denied he was either a member of the Communist party or the Progressive Labor Movement. The committee says the Progressive Labor Movement is an offshoot of the Communist party but tends to follow the Chinese Communist line rather than that of the Soviet Union.

SET NO DATE

The committee has set no date for resumption of the hearings, when it will call Morton B. Slater, 21, of New York.

Slater was on the stand Thursday when a follower of the American Nazi party leaped upon the witness stand and attacked him. Slater was hospitalized for medical observation and could not appear at Friday's hearing.

1,000 ADDED AT PENN STATE

UNIVERSITY PARK — The Pennsylvania State University will have an enrollment increase of approximately 1,000 students when classes begin on September 28, Dr. Robert G. Bernreuter, dean of admissions and registrar, said today.

The increase will bring the total enrollment of resident credit students to approximately 23,600, with about 19,100 on the University Park campus and 4,500 at the 15 other Commonwealth campuses throughout the state.

About half of the increase will be in enrollment at University Park where there were 18,621 students last fall and the other half of the 1,000 increase will be in enrollments at the other commonwealth campuses.

The Ogonitz campus at Abington will continue as the largest branch campus with 1,050 this fall and Altoona, where new residence halls will be opened, will have the second largest enrollment with 675 students.

The New Kensington campus for the first time will offer the first two years of four-year baccalaureate programs in addition to the two-year associate degree program and a new center will open in Harrisburg where work in three of the three-year associate degree programs will be offered.

Today's Talk

LIKES AND DISLIKES
Fashioned in similar mold, yet all of us are different — different in face and form, though resembling one another. Different in viewpoints and with a mind free to express itself at will. The fundamentals, however, with which we all have a part, comprise the life experience of us all.

We have our likes and our dislikes. We are happiest if we concentrate on expressing our likes. It helps to draw others to our banner. It is all very well to be bold spoken where wrong is involved, but we had better leave our dislikes unexpressed if our words are going to eat into somebody's heart.

We never know what is going on in the life struggle of one whom we have never met or known. If we can't say something hopeful and helpful about such a one, we had better say nothing and keep our dislike sewed up. I recall the incident of a critic who wrote a so-called "review" of a book by a noted author. It happened to be a current one, long after her fame had waned. But the critic was cruel and scathing in his review. What he didn't know was that the author was dying of an incurable disease — and she had time to read it. What a boost a few kindly words would have meant to her!

We are not ever going to have one happy world, in which unity of purpose shall rule, until we like more of other peoples than we do. We do not have to adopt the ways or forms of government that other nations have, but we can do business happily with them, and like them as human beings. To air our dislikes of other governments or of their peoples, only adds fuel that may ultimately result in a great and tragic fire.

There are many people whom we do not like, and there are those whom we know do not like us. But there should be no hatred in the heart for anyone. One should keep one's dislikes to oneself, that is, mostly. It is so much easier to praise and encourage people than to find fault with them. One feels happier when one does!

FUTURE GROWTH

He who doubts the future doubts the past
And beaten is before the struggle starts.
Tomorrow is the field for fighting hearts,
A scene unlighted now but wide and vast
Where men in splendid roles shall soon be cast
And boys today shall rise to noble parts.
Many remember when men rode in carts
And fancied 10 miles to the hour was moving fast.

Tomorrow holds adventure for us all,
Where now we see but dimly skies shall clear.
No man can tell what next old feet shall fall
Nor what discovery mark the coming year,
But from the past this truth we can recall
Growth and achievement mark men's journey here.

SAYS BUSINESS IN STATE GOOD

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Business conditions in Pennsylvania during July were described in a Penn State University research report Friday as "buoyant," and likely to remain so for the balance of 1964.

"Apart from the remote possibility that a labor-management dispute in the automobile industry will lead to a cutback in steel production," the report said, "business prospects in the state for the remainder of the year appear to be excellent."

The report was prepared by Ned Shilling, bureau of business research analyst at Pennsylvania State University.

"In employment, which normally shows decline from June to July," Shilling said, "most of the losses were smaller than usual and in some categories, employment even increased."

"Total employment, after the usual season changes, rose substantially above the 1957-59 average for the first time since the recession of 1960-61."

RACE RIOTING BREAKS AGAIN IN SINGAPORE

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—New race rioting flared in Singapore today as Malaysia and Indonesia moved closer to open war.

The rioting, blamed by some Malaysian officials on Indonesian agents, has left nine dead. The king of Malaysia signed a decree today which proclaimed the entire country a national "security area." The decree permits local authorities to impose curfews and ban unlawful assembly and gives police sweeping powers.

In Indonesia, President Sukarno, who has vowed to "crush" Malaysia, held another emergency meeting with his top advisers. The official Indonesian news agency Antara said he will make an important announcement soon about the "present critical situation."

A special meeting of the U.N. Security Council will be held in New York next Wednesday to consider Malaysia's charges that Indonesia is committing aggression against the federation. Malaysia has accused Indonesia of backing recent small-scale invasion attempts.

Indonesia's armed forces have been placed on a state of alert.

In Singapore, just across the Malacca Straits from Indonesia, Malaysian officials battled against more rioting which some suspected was inspired by undercover agents from Indonesia.

Meanwhile, there were unconfirmed reports that a fresh Indonesian air drop may have been made in the Labis area of Malaysia's Johore State.

Villagers in the area, 105 miles southeast of Kuala Lumpur, were reported to have found parachutes in the region.

Recess Talks In Newspaper Issue

PITTSBURGH (AP)—No progress has been reported following the recess of negotiations aimed at averting a strike which would shut down Pittsburgh's two daily newspapers.

The talks between management officials of the afternoon Press and Pressmen's Local 9 were recessed Friday and scheduled to resume Tuesday.

The morning Post-Gazette uses the same pressroom facilities as the Press and also would be affected by a strike.

Pressmen have been working on a month-to-month contract extension following the expiration of their old contract in April. The dispute is over wages.

Katzenbach Named Acting Justice Head

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nicholas deB. Katzenbach was running the Justice Department today following Robert F. Kennedy's resignation as attorney general.

Katzenbach, 42, a former University of Chicago law professor who has been deputy attorney general, became the department's top-ranking officer Thursday when Kennedy quit to run for the U.S. Senate from New York.

It is believed unlikely that President Johnson will fill the attorney general's spot on a permanent basis until after the Nov. 3 presidential election.

File Action To Block Bus Issue

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A citizens' group, the Parents and Taxpayers Association of Philadelphia, has filed suit to block the board of education's plans to transport by bus 2,900 students to relieve overcrowding.

The association, in its filed in Common Pleas Court Friday, charged that the board plans "to effect racial distribution and dispersion under the guise of eliminating crowded school conditions."

The association alleges that carrying students to schools outside their neighborhoods is illegal in that it would exclude "on the basis of their race," certain pupils from schools to which they otherwise would be assigned.

JAPAN TO SEEK PAIR ON GUAM

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese Welfare Ministry said Friday if it is true that two former Japanese soldiers still are on Guam, it hopes to bring them home.

Reports from Guam said two men—possibly former Japanese navy or army stragglers—have been spotted in the jungles of Guam.

A Welfare Ministry spokesman said: "We cannot rule out the possibility because two other former Japanese soldiers were rescued from the (Guam) jungles and brought back to Japan as late as 1960."

He said the ministry plans to dispatch a mission to Guam if it can be ascertained that the stragglers are Japanese and the U.S. government approves.

"The major difficulty," he said, "is that in past, survivors refused to turn themselves in because they never realized that Japan had lost the war. Even though we distributed leaflets telling them what had happened, they thought they were being cheated and that the leaflets were a propaganda trick."

GHS, DELONE HOLD WORKOUT UNDER LIGHTS

Gettysburg and Delone Catholic High Schools football squads locked horns in a scrimmage session Friday evening at McSherrystown in priming for their opening games next Friday evening.

The Warriors will journey to Westminster to meet the Owls next Friday while the Squires tangle with the Trojans at Chambersburg the same evening.

Both coaching staffs appeared satisfied with the work of their charges in Friday's drill. However, there is plenty of ironing out to be done by both squads.

The Gettysburg-Westminster game will mark the 16th in the series between the schools with the Owls, winners of the last 10 games, holding a 10-5 lead.

OWL VETERANS

Westminster has eight lettermen, all seniors. They include: Calvin Bloom, 190, tackle; Joe Kenney, 158, and Phil Selby, 162, both guards; John Peck, 175, center; Jeff Myers, 155, quarterback; Denny Bowen, 150, and Richard Blizard, 140, halfbacks, and Mike Wright, 193, fullback.

The three other county varsity squads are also busy getting set for openers next weekend.

Littlestown will entertain York Suburban Friday evening while Biglerville has an afternoon engagement with St. Francis Prep at Spring Grove. Bermudian Springs waits until Saturday afternoon to meet Northern of Dillsburg in the first game on Bermudian's new field.

BROWNS BUILD ON JIM BROWN AGAIN IN '64

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Otto Graham to the contrary, the Cleveland Browns once more are building their title hopes on Jim Brown, the fullback who has gained about seven miles in seven years.

Graham, former Cleveland quarterback, recently commented, "The Browns will not win anything as long as Brown is there. He is a great athlete, but he doesn't block."

Blanton Collier, who once coached Graham and now coaches the Browns, becomes indignant about any raps on Jim Brown.

CRITICISM UNFAIR
"It was an unfair thing to say," said Collier at the Browns' camp at Hiram College. "Jim does everything I ask him to do. He is primarily a ball carrier. It is not fair to criticize him. I never asked him to do anything that he hasn't done."

Inasmuch as Brown set a new NFL record last year by gaining 1,863 yards rushing and scored 15 touchdowns, Collier obviously isn't about to blast his super star.

Jim Ninowski has been taking advantage of a chance to play while Frank Ryan has been out with injuries. Ninowski, the No. 2 quarterback, hit with five touchdowns passes in an exhibition with Pittsburgh.

COLLINS IN FLANKER

Paul Warfield, the Browns' top draft choice from Ohio State, has taken over as split end, replacing Rich Kreitling, who was traded to the Chicago Bears.

Gary Collins who caught 13 TD passes in 1963, is the flanker, and Jim Brewer, who has been injured in the exhibition season, is the right end, backed by Tom Hutchinson. Collier is high on Walt Roberts, a 5-9, 165-pound rookie from San Jose State and Clifton McNeil from the taxi squad.

PROMISING ROOKIE

Kleroy Kelly is a good-looking rookie running back from Morgan State. Billy Truax, the No. 2 draft pick from Morgan State who may wind up as a flanker or a defensive end, has been handicapped by a pulled hamstring.

Dick Schafrath, an All-League performer, and John Brown are the offensive tackles with John Wooten and Gen Hickerson at guards and John Morrow at center.

Collier thinks his defensive line will be stronger due to the improvement of his young tackles, Frank Parker and Jim Kanicki. Dick Modzelewski, ex-giant, gives experience to the line that has veterans Bill Glass and Paul Wiggin at the ends. Bob Gain also is available at tackle.

Jim Houston, Vince Costello and Hal Fiss are the regular

Engle Unhappy With Scrimmage

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Coach Rip Engle wasn't too happy about Penn State's first football scrimmage Thursday.

"We didn't do anything well—nothing," Engle complained Friday. "We have a lot of work and I'm not sure we have enough time to do it."

Engle, who in 14 seasons at State has yet to have a losing season, called another scrimmage Saturday. The Lions open the season against Navy here Sept. 19.

Lou Michaels Is Returned To Club

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pittsburgh Steeler defensive end and kicking specialist Lou Michaels has been re-instated to the club on a probationary basis following a suspension.

Michaels requested and was granted a hearing with Coach Buddy Parker Friday.

Parker said Michaels was handed a substantial fine and will not be allowed to play in the final pre-season game Sunday. The game with the Baltimore Colts is the third annual Hall of Fame game at Canton, Ohio.

Michaels' suspension was announced Wednesday. He reportedly broke training rules at the Kingston, R. I., training camp.

Steeler officials refused to discuss specifics, but published reports, unconfirmed by the Steelers, say Michaels engaged in a fist fight with a teammate.

Littlestown Hi Grid Tickets Now On Sale

The reserved seat ticket sale for the five home football games at Littlestown High School has begun and tickets may be secured at Marvin's Cut-Rate Store, Littlestown.

Season tickets are $6 each while reserved seats per single game are $1.25. General admission for games will be $1 for adults and 35c for students.

The Thunderbolts, who open their season at home next Friday evening against York Suburban, have a very attractive home schedule. Other games include: September 25, Hanover; October 9, South Western; 30, Red Lion, and November 13, Spring Grove.

What else but a carefully contrived script could have made Callison Johnny-on-the-spot with the key hit in a four-run, eighth-inning rally that stunned the Giants 5-3 and increased the Phils' first-place margin by another big length.

Mauch may explain that a left-hander — rookie Dick Estelle — started for the Giants, that Callison would feel less pressure in the lower part of the order, etc. But any pennant-crazed Philadelphia fan will tell you the manager had the outcome up his sleeve all the way.

Callison delivered his tie-breaking single moments after Frank Thomas had tied the count with a two-run homer off lefty Billy O'Dell. Mauch probably had that one figured last month when the Phils spirited Thomas away from the New York Mets for the express purpose of hitting home runs against southpaw pitching.

The New York Giants, Eastern Division winners in the National Football League, will meet the Detroit Lions in the opener, and the host Browns will face the Green Bay Packers in the second game.

That's the highlight of the last pre-season week for the NFL, but all 14 teams will be in action, 12 tonight, and Baltimore and Pittsburgh Sunday at Canton, Ohio, in the annual Hall of Fame game. CBS will televise that one nationally.

FINAL TUNEUP
In the American Football League, six of the eight teams will have their final tune-ups tonight. Kansas City beat Houston 27-17 Thursday night.

In other NFL games tonight, the Minnesota Vikings meet the Philadelphia Eagles at Hershey, Pa.; the Dallas Cowboys play the defending champion Chicago Bears at New Orleans, and St. Louis faces Washington at Norfolk, Va.

Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney is among the seven who will be inducted into the Hall of Fame before the Sunday game.

Jim Conzelmann, former coach and club owner, and five players, George Trafton, Clark Hinkle, Ed Healey, Mike Michalske and Roy Lyman complete the list.

In the AFL, Denver will entertain the Boston Patriots, Buffalo goes against the revitalized New York Jets at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and the champion San Diego Chargers play the Oakland Raiders at San Diego.

PHILS SPANK GIANTS 5 TO 3; REDS BEATEN

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Gene Mauch didn't need an edge — his flying Philies have been giving him plenty to work with. But the National League leaders' canny pilot has come up with a new slant anyway. He's become clairvoyant.

Mauch must have had it figured beforehand when he dropped Johnny Callison, the Phils' most valuable veteran, to seventh in the batting order for Friday night's series opener with San Francisco.

What else but a carefully contrived script could have made Callison Johnny-on-the-spot with the key hit in a four-run, eighth-inning rally that stunned the Giants 5-3 and increased the Phils' first-place margin by another big length.

3 From State Win Backfield Posts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Pennsylvanians have won starting berths in George Washington University's football backfield.

Coach Jim Camp named Steve Welpott, a junior from Stratford, Pa., as starting quarterback. Camp said he was impressed by Welpott's passing.

Garry Lyle of Verona, Pa., a sophomore, replaced Harry Haught, a two-year letterman from Uniontown, Pa., as tailback. Sophomore Jon Raemore, Williamsport, Pa., replaced Tom Owen of Elizabethtown, Pa., as fullback.

INDIANS BOW TO CHICAGO IN TEN INNINGS

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Don McMahon of the Cleveland Indians has pitched the Chicago White Sox to within one percentage point of first place in the hectic American League pennant race.

It took him only about 33 minutes and three pitches Friday night as the White Sox nipped the Indians 6-5 in 10 innings.

Baltimore, meanwhile, lost to Los Angeles 7-1, giving the Orioles a .600 to .599 lead over Chicago.

McMahon, a veteran relief hurler, made his 60th appearance of the season, coming on at the start of the eighth inning with the Indians leading 4-3. In his first 59 games the 34-year-old right-hander had given up only three homers.

At the same time, the White Sox were one of the weakest home-run-hitting teams in the league, having connected only 89 times.

Ron Hansen, Chicago's leadoff batter in the eighth, promptly clouted his 16th homer into the lower left field seats for a 4-4 tie.

McMahon sailed smoothly through the ninth inning, and the Indians rallied for a 5-4 lead on Leon Wagner's run-scoring single in the top of the 10th.

Then came the White Sox 10th.

Pete Ward, the team's leading slugger, led off and powered his 19th homer into the center field bullpen. No sooner had Ward reached the dugout when Bill Skowron connected for his 16th, a drive into the right field seats.

YANKEES WIN
In other AL games, New York defeated Kansas City 9-7 in 10 innings. Minnesota crushed Boston 14-3 and Detroit edged Washington 1-0.

The White Sox played their sloppiest defensive game of the season, making five errors. Four of the miscues, by Don Buford, J. C. Martin, Tom McCraw and Hansen, led to two unearned runs off starter Juan Pizarro.

The Indians took their 4-3 lead in the eighth on Max Alvis' inside-the-park homer. Jim Landis crashed into the left-center field wall trying for the catch.

ADCOCK CLOUDS
Joe Adcock led the Angels' onslaught against the Orioles, hammering two homers and a single, batting in four runs. Willie Smith and Adcock slugged successive homers off reliever Chuck Estrada in the fifth, and Adcock drilled a two-run shot, his 20th, in the seventh.

Fred Newman, 11-8, held the Orioles scoreless until the ninth inning when Charlie Lau doubled and eventually scored on Jerry Adair's infield out.

A four-run, 10th-inning outburst, capped by Joe Pepitone's two-run double, brought the Yankees their victory over the Athletics. Nelson Mathews came back with a two-run homer in the bottom of the 10th. Ken Harrelson hit two homers for Kansas City while Mickey Mantle and Elston Howard connected for the Yankees.

CLOUTS 45TH HOMER
Minnesota added to its league-leading home run total with Harmon Killebrew's 45th, Tony Oliva's 29th and 30th and Zoilo Versalles' 18th. Killebrew's came with two on while Oliva hit his with Versalles aboard each time. Felix Mantilla socked his 25th for Boston.

Dave Wickersham won his 17th game against 10 defeats, allowing the Senators three hits in eight innings. Fred Gladding pitched the ninth for Detroit. The game's only run came in the second inning when Don Demeter doubled, moved to third on a single by Bill Freehan and scored on Norm Cash's sacrifice fly.

COWBOYS HAVE PROBLEM WITH QUARTERBACK

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys head into the National Football League campaign with a beefed-up defense and a question mark at quarterback.

The quarterback problem cropped up last Saturday when Dallas' No. 1, Don Meredith, suffered a knee injury as the Cowboys were being overwhelmed by Green Bay. Since the extent of the injury is yet to be determined, and since Dallas' only quarterbacks were untested second-year man Sonny Gibbs and rookie John Jacobs from Arizona State, a move was dictated.

So, the Cowboys brought 31-year-old John Roach out of retirement.

FLASHY ATTACK
Although the talk is about the Cowboys' flashy new attack, with receivers Tommy McDonald and Buddy Dial the prominent additions, Coach Tom Landry thinks his club will be improved most on defense.

"We added Jim Colvin from Baltimore and Maury Youmans from the Chicago Bears," said Landry. "And we have put Mel Renfro, our best rookie, at safety."

When Meredith is fit, he will handle the quarterbacking.

Gibbs, a much sought-after collegian a year ago, never got into a single game for the Cowboys in 1963. Billy Lothridge can be a quarterback in an emergency.

FINE TARGETS
Dial, Frank Clarke and McDonald, the former Philadelphia star, as the wide men will be fine targets. Pettis Norman is the tight end, backed by Lee Folkins.

Landry's offensive line is not too big and must depend more on finesse than power. Tony Liscio, acquired from Green Bay last year, has moved ahead of Bob Fry at left tackle. Jim Ray Smith is the other tackle. Joe Bob Isbell and Ray Schoenke are the guards and Mike Connelly the center of a constantly shifting line. Jim Boeke, ex-Ram, and rookies Whaley Hall, Jake Kupp and Dave Manders are in the fight.

RUNNING ATTACK
The running attack is built around Don Perkins and Amos Marsh, a rugged one-two punch when healthy. Jim Stiger and Amos Bullocks are the reserves.

Landry has placed Colvin at left tackle on defense and uses Youmans as a back-up man. George Andrie and Larry Stephens are the ends and Bob Lilly the other tackle. Behind the regular line-backing crew of Chuck Howley, Jerry Tubbs and Lee Roy Jordan, the Cowboys have Dave Edwards and Harold Hays.

Cornell Green and Don Bishop play the corner positions in the deep defense with Mike Gaechter and Renfro at safety. Warren Livingston and rookie Perry Lee Dunn of Mississippi probably will be the extras.

Torres Rallies To Beat G. Brennan

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Jose Torres needed a strong rally in the closing rounds Friday night to protect his No. 4 welterweight ranking against Gomo Brennan, a game 3-1 underdog.

The Puerto Rican from New York won the eighth and ninth rounds to pick up the margin of victory over his smaller opponent from the Bahamas in the next to last of the television fights.

Judge Barry Pearlman thought the hard-punching Brennan earned a draw, 9-6. Referee Sig Gottfried called it 9-6-9 in favor of Torres and judge Gus Jacobson voted for the favorite 97-94. It was 98-96 Torres on The Associated Press card.

Torres tipped the scales at 167 at the weigh-in but Brennan's manager, Dave Yeomans, said Torres weighed 172½, just before the fight.

Wins 25-Mile Race Friday Evening

MECHANICSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Junior Ritchey of Everett won the 25-lap feature for modified stock cars at Williams Grove Speedway Friday night.

Ritchey took the lead on the fourth lap, but he was pressed toward the end by Dick Tobias of Lebanon, who finished second. Irvin King of Gaithersburg, Md., was third.

The winning time was not recorded because of mishaps.

Accuse Sailor Of Property Thefts

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A hearing has been ordered for Sept. 18 for John A. Braunroth, 18, of Haverford, Pa., a former sailor, charged with theft of government property and receiving stolen goods.

Braunroth was released Friday after a preliminary hearing before a U.S. commissioner.

Braunroth was accused of stealing government clothing and supplies from Quonset Naval Air Station last Nov. 17.

Rookies Worrying Top Pro Golfers

DALLAS (AP) — The big names of golf continue to have to fight off rookies like bumble bees.

Wbees.
Chuck Courtney of La Jolla, Calif., a 23-year-old who has been a pro less than a year, has won one tournament — the St. Paul Open — and today he is in position to take his second.

Courtney putted his way to a five-under-par 65 Friday for the first round lead in the $40,000 Dallas Open at the Oak Cliff Country Club.

Tied for second with a 66 is George Archer of Gilroy, Calif., while still another rookie, Tony Evans of Columbus, S.C., was just two strokes back of Courtney.

Veterans Charles Sifford, Fred Haas and Frank Beard also had 66s.

GORMAN SETS SPRINGBOARD DIVING MARK

NEW YORK (AP) — It has taken a long time, but Frank Gorman, a 26-year-old Navy lieutenant from New York, has finally made it to the top in springboard diving.

Gorman, a red-headed, freckled, 155-pounder, has competed in diving for 13 years, but until Friday he'd never won a national title.

Frank came through with flying colors in the finals of the U.S. Olympic three-meter springboard trials though, topping a field of eight

New Seed Treatment Helps Farmer Eliminate Costly Grain Loss From Blights

THOMAS E. PIPER
Adams County Farm Agent

Grain seed treatment pays. Materials now available will effectively control bunt or stinking smut of wheat, covered smut of barley, and the oat smuts. They also help reduce seedling blights, get young grain plants off to a good start.

Grain seed treatment materials cost only a few cents per acre, and they have repeatedly increased yields by several bushels per acre.

Thomas E. Piper

Over-treatment can lead to injury, especially with seed of high moisture content. Injury is not a factor where the treatment material is applied according to the instructions on the label.

Treatment materials are colored and give a typical color, red or pink, to the treated grain. This is a safety factor so that treated seed can be recognized. This seed must not be fed or sold for feed or food purposes. Nationally, every year, there are a few instances where food and drug inspectors find a trace of treated grain in feed shipments and condemn the entire lot. This is the result of carelessness, or worse, for the colored grain is easily recognizable.

DRY-COW FEEDING

The feeding of dry cows should be geared to avoid both the over and underconditioned animal. One goal of a sound feeding program is to keep cows in a good working flesh, neither thin nor fat. Most cows should be in this condition before the dry period begins.

If dry cows are in good flesh, four to eight pounds of grain per head daily is usually adequate during the bulk of the dry period. More may be needed by thin cows or those on limited forage rations.

Cows should be fed at least three pounds of grain per head daily during the last month prior to expected freshening. This applies to bred heifers as well as dry cows. Even such a limited amount of grain will maintain a rumen microflora, which is adapted to concentrates as well as forage. If cows are getting too fat on a minimum feeding of concentrates, then limit forage intake.

GRAIN MIXTURES

If feasible, use the same types of forages and grain mixtures for dry cows, as they will receive when fresh. This helps to keep stress at a minimum by reducing the need for adjustments in rumen microflora. Major changes in rations generally make these adjustments necessary.

Remember, overconditioning dry cows may increase their susceptibility to ketosis or acetoneemia and calving difficulties. Thin cows at freshening time often do not have sufficient reserves to produce at their in-creased potential.

Now is a good time to take cuttings of house plants which have been planted outdoors. Geraniums and coleus can be carried over the winter as small house plants, and then used as garden plants again next summer.

When cutting flowers from bulbous plants such as lilies and gladioli, foliage is needed to store food for next year's flower. Without the foliage the bulb will produce very small, or no flowers, next year.

CUT FLOWERS FREELY

Cut flowers freely from annual beds. The more flowers are cut, the more the plants will bloom, and plants will stay nice until frost instead of slowing down in late August.

Select new daylilies for fall planting. An excellent perennial, daylilies will tolerate wet or dry soil, and sunny or shady locations. Some varieties remain evergreen in the garden most of the winter. In addition to the common yellow, orange and maroon colors, pinks and bright reds are now available.

For long lasting cut flowers in early morning or at dusk. Promptly place stems in a few inches of warm water of the

PLAN NURSERY COURSE AT PSU

Enrollments are open, it was announced this week, for training in ornamental nursery management and pest control technical work—two-year winter courses in the College of Agriculture at the Pennsylvania State University.

Instruction in both technical courses begins October 14, according to Fred C. Snyder, director of agricultural short courses at Penn State. The deadline for enrollment is October 1.

The training in pest control work is offered for the first time this fall and is the only winter course of its type in the United States, Dr. Snyder said. The training prepares men and women for employment in production, formulation, sale and use of pesticides and in control work related to insects and other pests.

Ornamental nursery management, according to Snyder, prepares persons for work in propagation, field production, use and maintenance of trees, shrubs, and flowers. Dr. Snyder indicated persons with this training are in demand by the ornamental nursery industry.

Instruction begins October 14

Mushrooms — Mushrooms, toadstools, or puffballs in your lawn are fruits of various fungi and may be difficult to eradicate until all wood or organic matter on which they are feeding is decomposed, says Herb Cole, extension pathologist at the Pennsylvania State University.

Coleus — Early September is a good time to take cuttings on coleus growing in the garden. They will be well established small plants to take indoors, says Link Pearson, extension floriculturist at the Pennsylvania State University.

Pears — A good time to pick pears for storage is about one week or 10 days before they normally ripen on trees, says Carl Bittner, extension pomologist at the Pennsylvania State University.

Plant Perennials — September is the month to plant many perennials, suggests Link Pearson, extension floriculturist at the Pennsylvania State University. This includes iris, peonies, day lilies, hardy bulbs, phlox and many others. He urges buying kit plants locally or from nearby mail-order firms, because

Boy Dies Under Tobacco Wagon

COATESVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Omar Stoltzfus, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Stoltzfus, Honeybrook, R. 1, was killed Thursday under the wheels of a farm wagon loaded with tobacco.

Authorities said the boy was on the wagon, driving a team of mules, and that the team bolted, pitching the boy out. Authorities said one of the mules may have been stung by a bee.

The accident occurred on the farm of a relative, Stephen Stoltzfus, about two miles from the boy's home. Omar's two elder brothers, hanging the harvested tobacco in a barn, were witnesses.

NBC Will Present "Mr. Magoo's" New Series Saturday Evenings, 8-8:30 Beginning Sept. 19

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

Do you have your own mental picture of how D'Artagnan looks? Or Long John Silver? Or the Count of Monte Cristo? Forget it.

This year they'll all look like Mr. Magoo. So will a lot of fiction's other favorite heroes as you'll be finding out for yourself these coming Saturday nights on NBC, in color, 8-8:30 p.m. (effective September 19).

"Famous Adventures of Mr. Magoo," is what they're calling the series . . . and it's a major entry in NBC's revamping of Saturday evening with programs which appeal to children.

BEGAN IN 1948

Of course, if so many of these heroes are coming on looking like Magoo, it means they'll all be sounding like Jim Backus, who's been the cartoon senior citizen's voice for the past 14 years. In fact there's conjecture around that even Backus is beginning to look like Magoo. Or is it vice versa?

At any rate, Backus admits to a great sympathy with the near-sighted bumbler he speaks for, but concedes only a few mutual traits. You just have to dig for the facts yourself and draw your own conclusions.

One thing's for sure, though. They're both doing great. Magoo has earned four movie Oscars and Backus has earned a lot of money since Magoo's muffled snarl was first heard in a minor role in the animated theater short "Ragtime Bear" in 1948.

53 MAGOO SHORTS

By now UPA has produced 53 "Magoo" theater shorts and about 125 television shorts.

Interestingly, "Famous Adventures of Mr. Magoo" is Magoo's first half-hour series.

The network seems to be taking no gamble at all, however.

Magoo is a mighty popular chap. Furthermore the series is a direct outgrowth of the critically-acclaimed special Magoo version of Dickens' "Christmas Carol."

"You realize, of course," said Backus, "that the story wasn't tampered with. It was treated straight."

NO CLOWNING

"And that," interjected Executive Producer Henry Saperstein, "is exactly what we'll be doing with the rest of the stories. There will be no deliberate clowning."

Saperstein elaborated: "Among the things we're doing are 'William Tell,' 'Don Quixote,' 'Rip Van Winkle,' and lots more. The play's the thing with us and we don't intend to compress a story to fit a half hour format. Some will be three and even four parts long.

"We're also planning to use the voices of famous guests for other star parts.

"If a subordinate role seems more suitable to Magoo he'll do it. For example, in 'Robin Hood,' he'll play Friar Tuck. In 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde,'

The new look in heroes is the Magoo look. Here a Bashful Magoo smooches with Snow White while a Grumpy Magoo snorts in the background. The myopic one will be seen in his first feature-length series on Saturdays on NBC, 8:00 to 8:30 (effective September 19). Other roles he's tackling include "Don Quixote" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

"Irascible," is a word often thrown at Magoo.

"Not all all," purrs his official studio biography. "Underneath he is really very good natured. Magoo is not a complex personality, although the characters who work with him often find him difficult and trying."

Now Backus is much sharper of eye and tongue but he's not irascible, either, and people love to work with him. Which is lucky, because he sure works a lot.

He's appeared in over 100 movies. And when it comes to television series, he's already two up on Magoo. ("Jim Backus - Hot Off the Wire," and "I Married Joan," which costarred the late Joan Davis.)

HAS OTHER JOB

Backus will also be featured in another series this year in addition to Magoo.

Meanwhile, he and his wife, Henny (Henrietta Kay) are currently collaborating on a Broadway play. They also turn off an occasional movie script, work on material for his night club act, and collect on their two best-selling books, "Rocks on the Roof," and "What Are You Doing After the Orgy."

Doing a lot of things at the same time became a Backus pattern back in his radio acting days. In 1936 he sometimes appeared on 30 shows a week. No billing, no recalls, but who cares. "Millionaires anonymous," is the way he shrugs off the oversight.

Not that he drudges, oh no.

VISITS RESORTS

When it all gets too hectic, he and Henny take turns going off to California's "Golden Door."

That's the thousand-dollar-a-week health resort. "But I can only go for a week at a time; but if they had men's week more often, I'd go more often."

So, though Magoo lives well, Backus seems to live it up considerably more. Maybe he's richer because he works more?

Anyhow, they both got prosperous starts in life. "Magoo," says the legend, "is definitely Ivy League." And Backus: Well he was born in Cleveland, "of wealthy Presbyterian parents."

Backus has the edge on acting, though. He did his first walk-on when Clark Gable starred in a Cleveland stock com-

CHANCES DIM FOR PASSAGE OF MEDICARE

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The odds appeared today to be against enactment of a Social Security health-care plan this year despite the 60-28 Senate passage of a bill which would set up such a system.

The health-care provisions were written into the bill by a 49-44 vote Wednesday. The House had included no such plan in the bill it passed. A Senate-House conference committee will prepare the final version.

CONFEREES NAMED

The Senate named conferees who had voted 5-2 against the health benefits for the aged, although they would normally support the Senate plan in conference.

The House delegation is expected to be headed by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., long-time foe of a Social Security-financed health program. He is likely to have a majority on the group who will side with him.

Nevertheless, Democratic leaders in both branches of Congress said they were determined to push as hard as possible for inclusion of some form of health benefits in the final version of the bill.

INCLUDES CASH PAYMENTS

The bill as it passed the Senate Thursday includes not only the health-care program but also increased cash payments for all those now on the Social Security rolls.

The Senate made numerous changes in the measure so there is a wide area of disagreement for bargaining purposes in the conference.

A House showdown on the health issue is not expected until the week after next. Basically, the House bill would provide a five per cent increase in retirement benefits, along with some other provisions.

Doctor Is Named To Health Post

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Peter Carmichael, of Mechanicsburg is the new chief of the Nursing Homes section of the State Health Department's division of chronic diseases.

Carmichael was promoted to the $14,657-a-year post last month after serving for four years as an industrial hygiene physician in the department's division of occupational health. The promotion was announced Thursday.

Job Reductions In Navy Yard Only 183

WASHINGTON (AP) — Job reductions at the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard will be less than originally planned, the Navy has advised members of Congress from the Philadelphia area.

Instead of the 225 jobs originally scheduled to be eliminated, the Navy said Friday only 183 jobs will be dropped because of a workload higher than anticipated, reductions in temporary employees and attrition—retirement and deaths.

Some 106 jobs, mostly of welders, will be eliminated Oct. 9 while the remaining jobs will be dropped during November, the Navy added.

JUDGE MOOK DIES FRIDAY

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A lingering illness has taken the life of President Judge Herbert A. Mook of Crawford County.

The 55-year-old jurist died Friday night in Meadville City Hospital.

Judge Mook entered a Pittsburgh hospital June 23 and underwent surgery. He was transferred to the Meadville hospital Aug. 22.

He was elected judge in 1947 and re-elected in 1957. Previously, he served two four-year terms as district attorney of Crawford County.

The judge was chairman of the Pennsylvania Council of Judges.

The Senate voted instead for a $7 monthly basic increase for retirees, plus the health plan.

Both bills would increase Social Security taxes to pay for the added benefits.

CHILE ELECTS SENATOR FREI AS PRESIDENT

By THOMAS J. STONE
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Pro-Western Eduardo Frei, a moderate leftist, rode to a landslide victory Friday night in Chile's presidential election. His success set back a serious Communist threat to the copper-rich Latin American republic.

Frei, 53, a reform-minded Christian Democrat, trounced Communist-backed Socialist Salvador Allende, who had pledged to nationalize nearly $2 billion worth of U.S. property in Chile and restore diplomatic relations with Cuba.

"We have obtained a truly immense victory. I receive this mandate of the people with humility," Frei told cheering thousands.

"Revolution! Revolution!" enraged followers of Allende shouted. They charged that President Johnson and Pope Paul VI had contributed money to defeat Allende, a plump 56-year-old physician who has lost three times in a bid for the presidency.

Allende's opponents said Moscow and Havana had smuggled money into the country for his campaign.

Frei followers celebrated in the night, singing and dancing in the streets. Frei, a senator, will take the government reins Nov. 4 for a six-year term. He succeeds Jorge Alessandri, barred by the constitution for seeking re-election.

Nearly complete unofficial returns:

Frei — 1,463,535

Allende — 975,690

Julio Duran, candidate of the Centrist Radical party, was far behind with 128,350.

A record of Chile's more than 2.5 million voters cast ballots in the bitterly contested election.

MAN ELECTROCUTED

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—A workman has been electrocuted at the Kinzua Dam project.

Police said Jerry Lee Stickle, 26, of Bolivar, N. Y., was electrocuted Friday as some pipes being lifted by a crane hit a high tension wire. Stickle was guiding the pipes.

venile Court Judges, a founder and former president of the county Child Welfare Society and a past director of Polk State School.

Among his survivors are two children and his widow.

KILLED BY BLAST

SCRANTON (AP) — Norman Ilges, 23, formerly of Moosic, Pa., was killed when an explosion destroyed a building in which he was assembling "flash bombs" for Labor Day weekend fireworks displays. The blast occurred at the Semenza Brothers Fireworks Manufacturing Co., Inc., located several miles south of Route 502 on a secondary road.

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — James Taylor, 5, of Milmont was killed Friday when hit by a car on Route 45, about 15 miles west of here. Authorities identified the driver as John Horvath of Riverdale, Md.

LOSES APPEAL TO HIGH COURT OVER PRIMARY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another obstacle has been removed from the path of final certification of Genevieve Blatt as the Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate from Pennsylvania in the Nov. 3 election.

Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court who opposed Miss Blatt in the April 28 primary, lost a request to the U.S. Supreme Court yesterday for a delay in all proceedings involving the primary. Justice William J. Brennan of the U.S. Supreme Court rejected Musmanno's request without comment.

The decision allows George I. Bloom, secretary of the Commonwealth, to certify Miss Blatt as the nominee. It also allows the state to print ballots naming Miss Blatt as the Democratic candidate to oppose U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa. Miss Blatt is Pennsylvania secretary of internal affairs.

APPEAL PENDING

Still pending is Musmanno's appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court to overturn a Pennsylvania Supreme Court decision that threw out 5,624 votes cast on wrong lines on voting machines in Philadelphia.

That decision left Miss Blatt with a statewide lead of 491 votes. Musmanno said that if the votes were counted he would be the winner.

Abraham E. Freedman, Musmanno's attorney, said Justice Brennan's decision "has no bearing" on the pending appeal.

"There is no suggestion that our (pending) appeal is not meritorious," Freedman said. He added that when Miss Blatt answers Musmanno's appeal, he will file a reply. He said he expected no action by the U.S. Supreme Court, which is now in summer recess, before the first week in October.

STUDENTS BACK JOHNSON 136-12

PITTSBURGH (AP)—President Johnson has been endorsed for president by a group of Methodist college students from Northeastern United States.

By a vote of 136-12, members of the Methodist Church Student Movement endorsed President Johnson Friday over his Republican opponent, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

A resolution rejected Goldwater on grounds that he voted against the nuclear test ban, the Civil Rights Act, the anti-poverty bill, a federal tax cut and medical care for the elderly under Social Security.

A spokesman for the conference said the Methodist Church traditionally refrains from taking political stands. However, he said the students felt the coming presidential election has moral overtones.

Khrushchev Is Expected To Offer Political, Economic Deals On Visit To Bonn

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
MOSCOW (AP) — During his forthcoming trip to West Germany, Premier Khrushchev is expected to make strong pitches on two fronts.

The first is political and would involve promoting the Kremlin's long-chestered plan for a World War II peace treaty that would formalize the division of Germany.

TRADE DEALS TEMPTING
The West German government would not agree to any such treaty, but Khrushchev may attempt to make his proposals more tempting by moving over to the economic front and offering lucrative trade deals.

The West German economy depends heavily on exports, and trade deals with the vast, underdeveloped Soviet Union always have tempted Ruhr industrialists.

But diplomatic observers in Bonn Thursday night were saying the prospect of any major agreement with Khrushchev is very slight.

They did voice some apprehension that Khrushchev might try to play West Germany off against France on the question of trade with the Soviet Union. France, in order to get Soviet orders for expensive chemical factories, is reportedly ready to grant the Soviets long-term credits.

FIVE-YEAR TERMS
The Western Allies have had a long-standing policy of keeping such credits down to five-year terms or less, but the French are reportedly ready to jump the traces.

West Germany, on the other hand, remains under closer American control and its trade negotiators would be under strong pressure not to grant long-term credits.

Diplomatic observers in Bonn also noted that Khrushchev's visit was announced at a time of a further cooling in French-West German relations. President Charles de Gaulle's World War II anniversary message to Khrushchev earlier this week caused some uneasiness among officials of the West German government.

DEGAULLE MESSAGE
To them, the tone of the De Gaulle message seemed unusual.

SIGNS BILL TO AID NURSING

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed Friday a bill to give federal aid to nursing training, calling it "truly a notable achievement towards raising standards of health care in the United States."

The act provides a five-year program totaling $287.6 million in federal aid for nurses training.

He signed the bill in a White House flower garden ceremony attended by some 15 members of Congress who had worked to get the bill passed.

One of those was Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, Democratic nominee for vice president.

Johnson said about 20 per cent of the positions for professional nurses in hospitals were unfilled today and the capacity to graduate more nurses must be increased. By 1970, he said, America will need 850,000 nurses, 300,000 more than it has today.

ally cordial. Some West German officials fear De Gaulle might further modify his support of the Allied position on the Berlin question and the German problem in general.

As for the visit's effect on Soviet-West German relations, diplomatic observers in Moscow felt Khrushchev had in mind something more than just a vague hope for improvement of relations.

It was noted that during his current visit to Czechoslovakia, Khrushchev had unexpected conferences with the foreign ministers of Poland, Hungary and Bulgaria. This led to immediate speculation that he might be consulting them about some possible switch in the Kremlin's policy toward Germany.

Details for the visit still must be arranged. It is expected that the visit will come after the U.S. presidential election Nov. 3.

SUCCESS IN TV FOLLOWS SET PATTERN

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — French provincial is out and Spanish influence is in — as far as Hollywood and television decorating and furniture styles are concerned this season.

Art collections continue to be conspicuous, now that almost everybody has turned Sunday painter and dabbles in oils.

Observation of the constant ebb and flow of fads and fancies is part of the fun for the annual or semiannual visitor to the fast-grinding mills of television.

SUCCESS SYNDROME

Perhaps even more interesting, however, is to watch the development of a typical success syndrome which seems to affect so many young unknown performers once they are lucky enough to land a regular job in a TV series that becomes a hit. To describe its classic course, it is best to use a fictitious character who shall be called John Doe, because his agent did not think his real name, Bruce Windsor, had the right kind of marquee sparkle. John, who was a salesman in a used car lot between acting jobs, was given the lead in a low-budget series and, in the usual pre-season exploitation, eagerly took on all interviews.

"I'm the luckiest fellow in the world," he said humbly. "And in addition to the great break, I have an opportunity to work with the greatest team in the world. And all you people are so great."

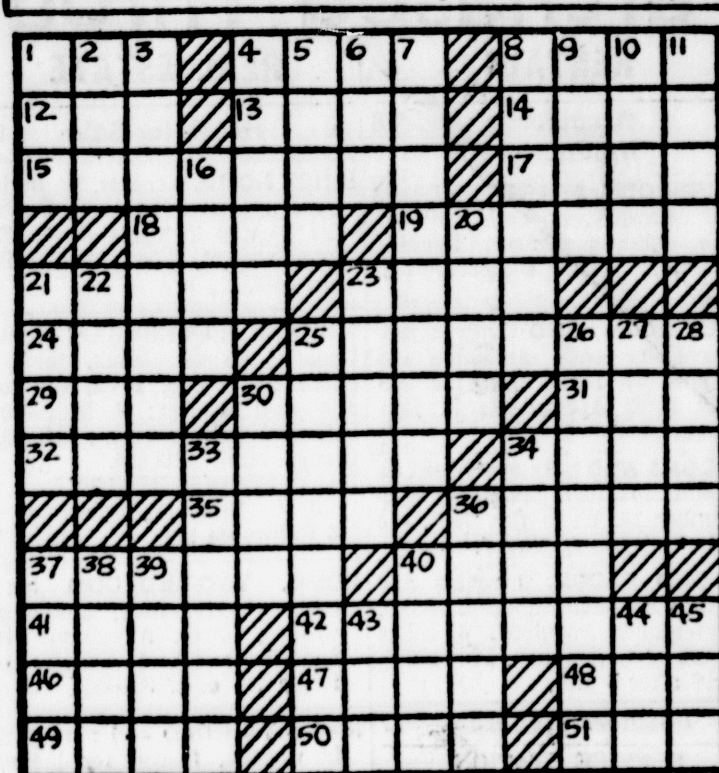

CHANGE IN TONE

For some reason, the series unexpectedly was a hit, renewed for another season. This time reporters are escorted to John Doe's dressing room for interviews.

"Ah," he exclaimed, suavely, "this is the hardest work in the world, but it is great experience. I'm glad to be able to develop the character and expose new facets. It would be nice, too, if I can get off long enough to make a feature movie — and, of course, I'm thinking of other series in the future."

By the third year, it is very hard to see John because he lunches daily with his business

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Saturday, Sept. 5, the 249th day of 1964. There are 117 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1774, delegates from all the Colonies except Georgia opened the First Continental Congress in Philadelphia. It was, in a sense, the beginning of the United States of America, when Patrick Henry set the stage by saying, "I am not a Virginian, but an American."

On this date:

In 1905, the Treaty of Portsmouth, ending the Russo-Japanese War was signed. For his work in bringing the warring nations together, President Theodore Roosevelt received the manager to discuss his real estate holdings, is busy making a record album after work and always rushes out of town to a secret hideaway to rest up on weekends. Caught in a set-side interview, however, he expresses some concern that his scripts were not quite to his liking and explains that he finds it necessary to do a little rewriting himself to keep the character "real and identifiable."

But by the fourth year, John is in the full grip of the success syndrome. He is — through his agent — quarreling bitterly over a new million-dollar contract because he wants a full six months a year off to do movies. He has developed an overriding fear that his whole career is being destroyed because he has lost his identity in the character he plays. All he wants is to find a nice juicy starring part in a Broadway play. And, although he still has daily business lunches with his manager, they now discuss literary properties for his production company which is, of course, named by the first two letters of each of his children's names. If he is occasionally available for interviews, it is likely to sound more like a heart-to-heart talk with a tax accountant.

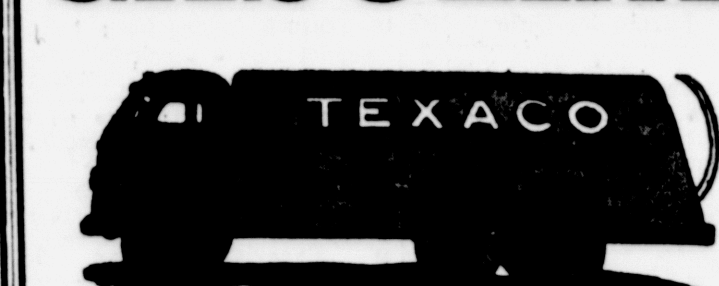

Of course, when the series does come to an end, the whole cycle starts again — if John Doe is lucky enough to get a part.

3 Million Enrolled In State Schools

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Department of Public Instruction's Bureau of Research estimates a record 3,072,100 students will be in schools and colleges this fall.

The Bureau reported Thursday that an estimated 176,500 full-time and 74,500 part-time students would attend colleges within the commonwealth — an increase of 6.7 per cent since last year.

Public schools will enroll some 2,181,200 pupils, an increase of 0.5 per cent, while nonpublic school enrollment is expected to total 639,900, up 1.3 per cent, the Bureau said.

Income Tax Claim Filed Against Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has filed a claim in U.S. Tax Court for another $52,000 in back income taxes from Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

The Internal Revenue Service says in the claim that among other items Hoffa failed to list more than $60,000 in legal fees paid by his Detroit Local 299.

Hoffa's attorneys are disputing all claimed items — covering 1958 and 1960 — and have asked that the trial be held in Detroit.

In another case, still pending, the government is seeking $20,295 it claims Hoffa owes from his 1959 income, which included $22,930 in legal fees.

In both cases, Hoffa's attorneys contend that the legal fees were necessary to Hoffa's business as Teamsters president.

ELECTRIC LIVING GUIDE

All rights reserved. H. T. Robinson & Co., Inc., New York.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

"Move-Up" to Electrical Heating Noted

"It's working two ways . . . a lot of people who want the advantages of electrical home heating are moving into Medallion developments.

"Other people, who've heard about the trouble-free comfort of electricity in heating from friends or relatives who have it demand it of their builders." Speaking was a noted electrical contractor.

All in all, between the two methods, in less than four years nearly two million private homes in America have "gone electrical" for heating.

Within the past year or so a growing number of apartment dwellers (as yet uncounted) have also been savoring the dial-your-own-temperature (and on a room-by-room basis, no less) along with homeowners.

"Medallion," the contractor explains "is not just a phrase.

"Medallion homes must be built to very rigid standards . . . then pass inspection to see that specifications were lived up to.

"'Gold' Medallion always means the house is heated solely by electricity. In addition, there are operational a certain minimum number of electrical appliances, provisions for future inventions even in the heavy duty wiring and circuits, and prime insulation.

"If your house passes these tests you're entitled to nail up the emblem somewhere on the house or incorporate it in a knocker, or affix it in many decorative ways.

"Most important perhaps — after the family's comfort, that is — you get a certificate.

"We advise keeping the certificate with the deed.

"It can prove as good as gold, worth real money if you ever want to sell."

Reasons for the "real money" value at resale time, it is explained, include "nondepreciation" of the heating system.

Electrical heating lasts, in everyday parlance, "the life of the house." Further, it is called "the fuel of tomorrow . . . and it's available today."

QUESTION BOX

Q. We've been reading advertisements about electricity for heating new homes, also a big apartment in the mid-West. Can electricity be added to an old house?

A. Yes, indeed. The most recent study shows that 28% of all electricity-heated homes in the United States are older homes.

Electrical contractors, together with responsible builders and architects, are in agreement, however, that to get the maximum benefits electrical heat has to offer it should not be considered as just an "addition."

The best thinking is that it should be accompanied by whatever reconstruction might be necessary to assure good insulation, draft-resistant windows and doors, etc.

Q. Why is double glass necessary with an electrical heating system?

A. Well, it can be "double glass" or "double windows."

Reason is: With electrical heating systems nothing is wasted getting the heat into the room so why dissipate a good thing by letting the heat leak out or the winter seep in.

There's no law that says you have to have double sash . . . it's just the sound recommendation of a lot of people who want you to get your money's worth. Electrical manufacturers and utility companies figured out a few years ago that no advertisement is better than a satisfied user.

Q. What are the statistics on electricity for heating schools and hospital? Does it equal the per capita home use?

A. At present there's no exact answer to this . . . and no need for one from this column's point of view. It's apples and oranges. Both are good, both are needed . . . and incidentally, both are increasing. At the end of last year, the total of electrically-heated homes was 1.6 million. And the main growth had been in a rapid three-year period.

There are also reports of praise from all over the country for the effectiveness and economy of electricity for heating schools, new hospitals in some areas, and other public buildings.

BACKUS PLANS "MAGOO" VOICE IN LONG SERIES

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A few months ago an NBC vice president, apparently the one in charge of station breaks, telephoned Jim Backus, the actor who plays the voice of Mr. Magoo in the network's new half-hour comedy starring the near-sighted cartoon character.

"Do you want to drop over to the studio and make voice-over promotion for the end of your show telling the audience to stay tuned to 'Kentucky Jones'?" asked the vice president.

"No," said Backus promptly. "I don't want to. I don't want them to stay tuned to NBC. I want them to switch to CBS."

THREATENS STAR

The vice president, obviously shaken, murmured that he'd get back to Backus. He never did.

The actor had a valid reason for his firm refusal: Jim Backus is also a star in a new CBS show, "Gilligan's Island," which follows "The Famous Adventures of Mr. Magoo" on the rival network.

This makes Backus television's only double-threat, two-network, performer.

It would be difficult to replace Backus in "Mr. Magoo" since he has played it since the little fellow was created as a theater artoon about 18 years ago. "I AM Magoo," he says.

NUMEROUS CHARACTERS

"The Famous Adventures of Mr. Magoo" is a spin-off of NBC's special "Mr. Magoo's Christmas Carol," in which the little character played Ebenezer Scrooge. During the next few months he'll be playing Rip Van Winkle, Friar Tuck, Long John Silver, all the seven dwarfs, Don Quixote, Captain Kidd, Cyrano, William Tell and Gunga Din, among others, in adaptations of famous stories.

In the comedy series "Gilligan's Island," Backus will be playing a millionaire cast-away, one of seven survivors of a shipwreck, who continues to live in country-club style in spite of his surroundings and problem of survival.

Backus, who started his radio career almost 30 years ago, made his first television splash 11 years ago with "I Married Joan," in which he played straight man to the late Joan Davis. The series is still around in re-runs, and so is another series he made later. Then there are all the Magoo shows seen in assorted children's hours, plus a raft of commercials starring the character.

Big Names Added To "Rawhide" Show

Confirming that there will be a new look on "Rawhide" is announcement of "a second major talent acquisition" (on a guest star basis). It is Dean Martin. Rita Hayworth signed earlier for a single episode.

As part of the big-name policy, each of the stars will appear in a vehicle especially written for him (or her).

Stirling Silliphant authored the script for Martin who'll portray a gunfighter hired to kill a leading citizen.

Over the past 15 years "The Ed Sullivan Show" has presented more than 20,000 performers at a talent cost of over $20,000,000.

"Good Guys" In TV Shows Are Changing

The vogue for Westerns has waned . . . but good guys are still in style, even if prairies aren't.

Styles in "goodness," though seemed to have changed a little. Here's CBS's official description of "The Reporter." "Danny" (played by Harry Guardino) is an incomplete man. Only the work he does, the story he tracks down, completes him — for the time being. His is not the intellectual, well-thought-out, logical anger of someone ready to take up a cause. It's pure emotion, rising out of early poverty. One thing Danny is not: a "do-gooder" or a "social reformer."

NEW HERO

Another newly minted hero is Sam Bailey (played by Paul Ford). In "The Baileys of Balboa," Sam is a "salty" individualist. He's not fighting City Hall, but he fighting the Yacht Club. His nemesis is an overdressed commodore. "Their mutual antipathy is well-founded. Sam looks on Cecil Wynton as

HONORS FOR JOHNNY
Variety Clubs International have made known that Johnny Carson wins their "Personality of the Year" honors for 1964. Official presentation of the award will be made at a November banquet in Washington D. C.

Did you know that the International Showtime theme was composed by Paul Anka? It's titled "Dumpy."

a pretentious bore. Wynton sees Bailey as a mutineer against the establishment. Both are right."

Both "The Reporter" and "Baileys" will be on CBS, starting the last week in September.

NBC has Emmy-winner Jack Klugman signed up and hard at work in "Harris Against the World." That's the No. 3 segment in the 90-minute, loosely connected forth coming series with three separate 30-minute story lines. "Karen" — at 7:30 Mondays beginning October 5, is teen-age-oriented. "Tom, Dick and Mary" is young-marrieds. Then comes Harris. Of him the synopsis says, "He seems to finish in last place more often than not. He also has a beautiful wife who's a champion at running up bills."

"EXPLORING" OPENS OCT. 17

It is said that last season one out of every four classrooms in the country oriented portions of their teaching curricula to the program, "Exploring," a Public Affairs presentation of NBC News.

With Dr. Albert R. Hibbs, senior staff scientist at Cal Tech, as host, "Exploring" will commence it's 1964-65 series on October 17. As in the past, the colorcasts will be an hour in length . . . air time however, has been moved up to 12 noon.

NBC is again publishing "student guides" for principals of elementary and high schools. Explains the network: "Each guide provides the teacher with advance information on the next three upcoming programs, outlines goals, and suggests ways in which teachers may broaden the scope of their teaching by utilizing the series' educational values."

The series' scope will again include scientific studies, language arts, music, social studies and mathematics.

Paul McGrath of "The Secret Storm" is currently featured on Broadway in the role created by Sidney Blackmer in "A Case of Libel."

Variety Of "Specials" Are Coming

David Wolper Productions, Inc., which for several seasons has concentrated heavily on specials and series dealing with Hollywood, is turning to new topics.

In conjunction with ABC News, Wolper will produce three documentaries this year and three next.

The late General MacArthur will be the subject of the first. A study of "men who thrive on thrills" and "an analysis of tyrannical teen-agers" are two other topics announced to date.

An hour-long special is being prepared by CBS on the Sistine and Pauline Chapels in Rome. It is said the Pauline Chapel has never been opened to television cameras and the Sistine has been seen by viewers only in brief Telestar glimpses. The uniting themes of the two visits will be the paintings of Michelangelo.

More recent history will be the subject of one of its Wednesday night TV reports, CBS has made known. As the basis for its study of the U.S. Supreme Court decision extending the constitutional right of the accused to counsel, the network has purchased TV rights to "Gideon's Trumpet." The book, published early this summer by Random House, is the work of Pulitzer Prize winning reporter Anthony Lewis.

Miss America Show Marks Birthdays

Even before they take the tape measure to record for posterity the dimensions of whoever becomes Miss America 1965, the September 12 Atlantic City event is arithmetic-rich.

The 44-year-old pageant will also be put to use honoring the 300th birthday of the host-state, New Jersey.

It's also the tenth year Bert Parks has served as on-stage master of ceremonies . . . and the tenth year Glenn Osser has conducted the orchestra. And . . . it's the eighth year since CBS started going steady with "The Miss America Pageant." The two-hour program, which commences at 10 p.m. Saturday, will be carried live.

NBC Will

pany presentation of "White Cargo." After that it was Kentucky Military Institute and University . . . then off to the American Academy of Dramatic Arts.

WENT TO RUTGERS

Magoo, it is said, went to Rutgers, but alas not to dramatic school. Except for his voice, he's a "natural" and UPA has a staff of more than 250 to see that he stays that way.

"Don't you worry about Magoo," intoned Backus out of the side of his mouth at a New York reception honoring them. "He knows what comedy is. None of this white-tie-and-tails type patter for him. What's funny about that? Magoo is to laugh at."

And so this year it is D'Artagnan, Long John Silver, etc. etc. Every Saturday night.

With the old "Cheyenne" series slipping into television history, Clint Walker is turning his attention to movies. His next, an outdoor color spectacular, will be "The Whip" (for Warner Brothers). Walker recently finished "None But the Brave," in which he costarred with Frank Sinatra who also directed.

Science Show

Will Return

Early In '65

"Science All Stars" will return in January for another season, ABC announces. Don Morrow will return, too, as emcee of the series which is presented in cooperation with Science Service which administers the annual National Science Fair.

Stated ABC Vice President Edward Bleier of the critically acclaimed program. "It makes an important contribution to the nation's youth as reflected by the cooperation of the top scientists and educators who appear on the program."

CBS is readying some changes in its Saturday morning lineup of children's programs.

Chief addition is the hour long "Mr. Mayor" starring Bob Keeshan, better known as "Captain Kangaroo." The new program will run in old "Captain Kangaroo" time, 8 to 9 a.m.

Another newcomer is a series about a gentle lion. Called "Linus the Lionhearted," it will replace "Rin, Tin Tin" at 11 a.m. in the Saturday lineup.

Through the complicated tube system Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. had more real food to eat as he orbited the earth during his historic flight than did newsman Frank McGee. McGee, safe on the ground — but hungry — managed occasionally to sip coffee and water, but he never had time to eat. He was on the air for 11 and one-half consecutive hours.

Read why handsome David Hedison feels he was destined to star in the futuristic "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea" in Ruth E. Thompson's column appearing in View Magazine Sept. 13.
